

Estes Thorne & Carr PLLC

"We place a lot of importance on open communication and working together, and not just within the firm," says founding partner Dawn Estes. "We work very closely with our clients as well, and build our strategy around their needs."

Estes Thorne & Carr has been ranked among 2018's Best Law Firms by U.S. News and Best Lawyers in commercial litigation, family law, and labor law. And with the firm moving up in the Dallas Business Journal's list of the city's largest women-owned businesses, the litigation boutique couldn't be more proud of what it's accomplished.

Whether litigating a case, serving as local counsel, or negotiating a settlement, the attorneys at Estes Thorne & Carr are committed to advocating for their clients and helping them accomplish their goals.
